

2022 Cornerstone Day Nominations
(the student making the nomination is listed first)

Andrew Yaider- I would like to nominate Thomas Hansen because he brings our classes much joy, is very well behaved, and is always on task.

Robyn Barberry- Billy Benton puts a tremendous amount of care into everything he does to keep Curley running smoothly. From washing uniforms, to making sure the minibuses are ready to go, to tidying up the athletic entrance to make it more welcoming, Billy's commitment to making Curley shine is evident. His smile is contagious and he always has a moment to say, "hello," no matter how busy he is. Often, his work goes unnoticed and unrecognized, but Billy follows the lead of Mother Teresa and does small things with great love.

Dylan Carver '23- Mr. McGinty is a big part of Curley but also plays a huge role in my life outside of school. Every day that I come into the building, I walk into Mr. Marty's office and say hello and shake his hand. He is a huge role model for me and a person I'll continue to visit after high school.

Luis Funez- I would like to nominate Nguyen Burrell. He makes Curley a better place because he always maintains a positive attitude and makes everyone feel better when they are having a bad day. He always does his work and respects his fellow students, teachers, and staff.

Michael Cox- I would like to nominate Coach Jeff (Mr. Farace) because he is always working behind the scenes to make our school a better place. He goes above and beyond for the students of our school each and every day.

Connor Peterson- Ms. Kangas is my Cornerstone because of her commitment to the school and her dedication to making an impact on as many students as she can.

Karl Glander- I nominate Ms. Grayson for being a great English teacher.

Ryan Edmonds- I would like to nominate Ms.Barberry for making my sophomore English class really engaging and fun!

Aaron Rose- I nominate Jeremiah Lewis because he is a great example of how hard work pays off. He gives me and the football team guidance in regards to college recruiting and sets the standard with a high GPA. He will also be attending Cornell, an Ivy League school next year. He is a vocal leader and someone people look up to.

Greate White- I nominate Brian Collins because he is a good teammate, friend, and someone I can trust.

Brian Collins- I would like to nominate Ronald Evans because he's funny and a good friend.

Dillon Schissler- I nominate Ty Ross. He is a hard worker and involved in many clubs at Curley.

Jeffrey Fortune & Jeremiah Lewis nominate Coach Ireton- Jeffrey thanks Coach Ireton for being a great support guide and helping him throughout the year with challenges in and away from school. Jeremiah believes Coach Ireton is a good coach because he not only cares for his player as athletes, but also as students.

Charlie Grace- I would like to nominate Alex Espana because he makes me laugh and picks me up when I am down.

Brandon Merryman- I would like to Nominate Mr. Snarski because he is a great teacher who relates to the students. He has a good sense of humor and is hard working when it comes to his job. Mr. Snarski has made my Curley experience better in many ways and has helped me when I have questions or have struggled.

Daniel Te '23- For the Cornerstone Day commemoration, I would like to nominate Mr. Pavlacka. I nominate him because every day in the 2nd floor hallway he stands outside his room in order to greet me. This definitely helps to boost my mood. He does this with other students as well and it has a positive effect.

Gavin Hibbert- I would like to nominate Ms. Robin, Ms. Deborah, and Ms. Brenda for their hard work in keeping our school clean. I also appreciate them helping me find my gym bag.

Luke Walz- I nominate Mr. Gill because he makes class enjoyable and engaging for all students!

Christopher Barker- I would like to nominate Jake Fuhr because he helps me to be a better person and makes Curley for me a better place. He has done a lot for me.

Ryan Cosey- I think Luis Funez would be a great nomination because he is involved in many Curley activities. He is also very caring and nice.

Jaden Lewis- I want to nominate Dominick Biggs. He is the #1 fan at every Curley game and he really spreads the Curley brotherhood. He is the true definition of a Curley brother and a great representation of a Curley man.

Zyad Yousof- I nominate Dezmin Lewis because he's always willing to take the time to help somebody.

Andrew Jordan- I believe that Friar Chris is a cornerstone. He helps us to grow in our faith and he plans all the FLEX days. That takes a lot of dedication.

Kevin Goedeke- I nominate Mr. Smith because he is caring and makes theology fun and interactive.

Ngyuen Burrell- I nominate Ryan Cosey because he always has a great attitude and a smile on his face.

Jacob Fuhr- I nominate Liam Roesener and Mike Cox because they have been great "big brothers" to me during my freshmen and sophomore year. 12:30pm

Trey Magnaye- For Cornerstone Day I would like to nominate Mr. Loftus. I believe he makes Curley a better place because he helps with a lot of events around school and keeps alumni coming back to support Curley.

Nathan Babikow nominated Mr. Ryan & Fr. Chris- Mr. Ryan for always telling me and my classmates that we can push to be better and to strive for great things and Fr. Chris for of all the work he does for Curley and how he's helped me become closer to God.

Mr. Brownlee- I'd like to nominate Gina Petr as a Curley Cornerstone. Gina has done a fantastic job through her work in the Admissions Office of promoting Curley with prospective families and in the community. Gina is always willing to help out other departments at Curley with her many talents and creativity. Most of all, Gina always has time for a conversation and a kind word of support for our Curley students.

Justin Mosely- I would like to nominate Mateo Eral. I think he makes the Curley community a better place by always having a smile on his face and always being there to help me with my school work. He is always in a positive mood and is a good friend.

Liam Roesener- I'd like to nominate Jake Fuhr. He's always walking around with the best attitude and always makes me laugh. He's a great kid and shows respect to everyone, no matter who they are.
