2026 Hall of Fame Inductees

Paul Boettcher ’99/ Wrestling

Paul Boettcher was a standout wrestler whose outstanding high school career was defined by competitive excellence. He compiled an impressive career record of 143 wins and just 15 losses, earned two National Prep All-American honors, and captured tournament championships 18 times. During his senior year, Boettcher claimed both the MIAA and Maryland Independent State Championships. A two-time team captain, he helped lead his team to two consecutive MIAA championships, including the 1998 squad that finished the season ranked No. 1 in the state. His individual accomplishments also earned him Baltimore Sun All-Metro recognition. He capped off his senior season with an impressive fourth-place finish at the prestigious National High School Senior Wrestling Tournament. Boettcher currently serves as the head varsity wrestling coach at Curley, where he continues to share his experience with the next generation of wrestlers.

Chris Mizurak ’02/ Football, Ice Hockey, and Lacrosse

Chris Mizurak was an outstanding three-sport athlete who earned nine varsity letters while competing in football, ice hockey, and lacrosse for the Friars. A dedicated and versatile competitor, Mizurak was a key contributor to multiple championship teams throughout his athletic career. On the football field, Mizurak excelled as a two-way player and was a member of two MIAA B Conference championship teams. On the ice, he was a four-year starter and team captain, helping lead his team to three championship seasons, including a state championship. In lacrosse, Mizurak contributed as a midfielder, rounding out an impressive three-sport career. In recognition of his outstanding athletic accomplishments, Mizurak was named the Fr. Julian Athlete of the Year in 2002.

Reggie Rabb ’78/ Football and Track & Field

Reggie Rabb was a top-performing, two-sport athlete earning letters in both football and track & field. As a member of the 1977 football team, he helped lead the Friars to an 8-2 record, a No. 3 ranking in The Baltimore Sun poll, and the Catholic League championship. Rabb made school history as Curley’s first running back to eclipse 1,000 yards rushing, finishing the season with 1,082 yards and earning All-Metro Second Team honors. On the track, Rabb excelled in the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes. He continued his athletic career at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, where he became one of the program’s all-time leading rushers, finishing third in career rushing yards. He earned All-Conference honors in football all four years and helped his team capture three conference championships. He also distinguished himself as a collegiate track & field athlete, contributing to four conference championship teams. Rabb was inducted into the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse Hall of Fame in 1997.

Pat Trott ‘80/ Football, Basketball, and Baseball

Pat Trott was a true three-sport standout whose accomplishments in football, basketball, and baseball earned him a place among the school’s most accomplished athletes. A two-year starting quarterback, Trott demonstrated leadership and poise on the football field while making an equally significant impact on the basketball court and baseball diamond. As a key contributor to some of the best basketball teams in school history, Trott helped lead the 1980 team to a memorable victory over previously unbeaten and nationally ranked Calvert Hall. Trott also excelled on the baseball field. He was the starting first baseman on the 1978 MSA championship team and earned All-Metro Third Team honors in 1979 after finishing with the third-highest batting average in the league. His senior season saw the Friars advance to the MSA championship game with Trott being named the team's MVP. His outstanding athletic performance led to being named the Father Julian Athlete of the Year in 1980.

Josh Taylor '05/ Soccer

Josh Taylor was a four-year member of the varsity soccer team at Curley, where he established himself as a shutdown defender and team leader. During his 2003 junior season, Taylor helped lead the team to an undefeated regular season, finishing with an impressive 19-0-2 record that included 10 shutouts. His outstanding play garnered him numerous postseason honors over his career, including All-State, All-Metro, All-City, and All-MIAA recognition. Taylor earned a scholarship to continue his soccer career at Loyola College, where he made an immediate impact. As a freshman, he was named to the MAAC All-Rookie Team. During the 2007 season, he helped Loyola establish a school record with 17 shutouts and earned All-MAAC honors for his contributions on the field. A proven leader at every level, Taylor served as team captain at both Curley and Loyola College. His accomplishments and lasting contributions to the program were further recognized with his selection to Curley's All-Decade Team.